

Call to Artists

The Nelson and Area Métis Society, in partnership with Touchstones Nelson: Museum of Art and History, invites Métis artists and artisans to submit information for an upcoming project focused on Métis culture and history in the Columbia Basin.

Purpose of Project:

The project will engage community members in exploring topics related to Métis identity, culture and history. Programming will aim to enrich learning for the community about these topics through contemporary and traditional arts practices. The intention is to open up conversation around Métis presence in the Kootenay-Columbia Basin, and provide opportunities for the community to merge understandings of Métis through art and history.

This call is part of a larger research project lead by the Nelson and Area Métis Society.

Submissions Guidelines

- Artist must be of Métis ancestry
- Interested individuals should reside in the Kootenay / Columbia Basin
- Please provide;
 - Your name;
 - Discipline/medium;
 - Location
 - Short bio
 - Image (if available)

Deadline: March 25th, 2019

Contact info:

Nicole Courson, Vice President of Nelson and Area Métis Society
nicole.courson@gmail.com

Nelson and Area Métis Society is a part of Métis Nation BC

